O Almighty God, who, for the Transgression of our first Parents, hast ordàined, that Woman in Sorrow should bring forth Children, but still in Judgment dost remember Mercy; we yield Thee hearty Thanks, that Thou hast graciously vouchsafed to support Thy Servant, the Princess of Wales, in the Hour of Trial; that Thou hast conducted her in Safety through the Perils of Childbirth, and, by giving her the Blessing of a Daughter, hast turned her Sorrow into Joy. Perfect her Recovery, we beseech Thee, O Lord, and restore her to the Prayers of her Royal Consort and this Nation. Give her Grace to walk constantly according to

to Thy Will, and in all Dangers and Afflictions to place her whole Trust and Confidence in Thee. Regard, O Lord, the Child which Thou hast given her, with the Eye of Thy Love. Preserve her in the tender Age of Infancy, and in her riper Years enlighten and support her with Thy Grace; that she may be a Comfort to her Royal Parents, a Blessing to the Nation, an Instrument of Thy Glory in this World, and an Inheritor of Thy Kingdom in the World which is to come.

Finally, we offer up our Prayers for Thy continual Protection of our most Gracious Sovereign, of the Queen, and of all the Royal Family, but especially Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales. Bless them, O God, in their own Persons, and in their Progeny, that every Increase of it may be an Increase of their Happiness. And grant, that, this Life ended, they may be Partakers of the Happiness and Glory of that better Life which Thou hast given us in Thy Son Jesus Christ; to whom with Thee and the Holy Ghost be all Honour and Glory, World without End. Amen.
